IV. Election of Officers

Dr. Greenlaw was elected chair and Dr. McNitt was elected vice-chair of COTE for 2003-04 by acclamation.

VI. Executive Director's Report

Dean Rohn recently met with the presidents of nine community colleges. They were extremely complimentary of EIU and of the cooperation between EIU and the community colleges.

The Governor is considering a proposal that calls for the virtual elimination of the Regional Offices of Education and for massive cuts to the Illinois State Board of Education.

There is legislation being considered to eliminate the current Teacher Certification Board and to replace it with a board appointed by the Governor. This is the board that approves and oversees all teacher certification programs.

Dean Rohn also shared handouts regarding the new Assessment of Professional Teaching (APT) exam, the new testing fees, implementation schedule for the new certification tests, and the new content tests to be administered beginning July, 2004.

(Dr. Campanis and Dr. Murray exited the meeting at this point)

The meeting adjourned at 3:15 p.m.
